

The Easter sunshine breaks again

George Edgar Oliver

Allegro pomposo

♩ = 120

rall.

1. The East - er sun-shine
2. Fair blos - soms on the
3. So on this glo-rious

7

breaks a - gain On all the sin - ful earth, More glo - rious than the star - lit morn, We've East - er morn, Fling forth their fra-grance sweet, And tell of Res - ur - rec - tion - joy, And East - er day Our glad-some songs we raise, And ech - o e'en to Heav'n's own gates Our rall. Tempo rubato

12

mf p

sang at Je - sus' Birth! We've watch'd be - side our Sav-iour's Cross, We've so-row'd at His Je - sus' work com - plete! But fair - er still the of - fer - ing Each lov - ing heart should hap - py notes of praise! For He who died is ris'n a - gain, "The Life, the Truth, the 17

a tempo rall.

f

Grave; But now He's bro - ken Death's dark bands, Our Je - sus, strong to save!
bring, Of faith and love and pen - i - tence, To Christ, its ris - en King.
Way!" Sing on, ye hap - py Chris - tian hearts, The Lord is ris'n to - day.