

Christ is risen, all triumphant

Augustus Ulmann

Allegro non troppo

1. Christ is ris - en, all tri - umph - ant, He is ris - en from the tomb!

5 An - gel voi - ces sweet - ly sing - ing, Ban - ish all our earth - ly gloom:

9 Join the glad song, all ye na - tions, Of His great re - deem - ing love,

13 Cal - va - ry a - lone can save us, Christ is smil - ing from a - bove.

2. He has risen! He is pleading
For each poor and struggling one;
Blessed day we hail thy dawning,
Hope shall gild thy rising sun!
While on earth, reviled, rejected,
Gain He counted but as loss.
Hallelujah! He has risen
And we bow before the Cross.

3. Let the glad songs now ascending,
Sing our dear Redeemer's Name;
Christ has risen! Christ has risen!
All our hope is in the same;
Blessed day that banished darkness,
At the Cross we bow in love,
Knowing that a risen Saviour
Smiles all sweetly from above.

4. Ring, glad bells, your loudest anthems,
Sounding joy o'er all the earth,
Crown the altars now with garlands,
Let us bow before His worth!
Christ has risen! joy excelling,
All our sorrows flee away,
And our hearts with joy are beating,
On this blessed Easter Day!
