Phillida bewailed

Giles Farnaby (c. 1563 - 1640)

Phillida bewailed the want of Corydon,

And Herpuclus of Phillida complained, for Corine often would she sigh and groan, for Corine of ten would she sigh, of ten would she sigh and groan, and groan, but Her-pulus that would she sigh, would she sigh and groan, but Her-pulus that loved her of ten would she sigh and groan, but Her-pulus that loved her but Her-pulus that loved her she disdained, poor loved her she disdained, Her-pulus that loved her she disdained, poor she disdained, that loved her she disdained, poor her she disdained, poor

Her-pulus, why should not rigour move, not Her-pulus, why should not rigour move thee, not Her-pulus, why should not rigour move, why should not Her-pulus, why should not rigour rigour move thee? to hate her thrice, to hate her thrice, to hate her thrice, that once disdained to love thee. Poor thee.
