

See-saw waltz song

Alfred Gwyllym Crowe (1835-1894)

See - saw, see - saw, Now we're up or down,

The first system of the score is in 3/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a half note 'See' followed by a quarter note 'saw', then a half note 'see' followed by a quarter note 'saw', and finally a half note 'Now we're up or down'. The piano accompaniment provides a simple harmonic support with chords and single notes.

See - saw, see - saw, Now we're off to Lon - don Town.

The second system continues the melody. It features a triplet of eighth notes in the vocal line: 'Now we're off to Lon - don Town'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment.

See - saw, see - saw, Boys and girls come out and play,

The third system begins at measure 17. The vocal line has a half note 'See' followed by a quarter note 'saw', then a half note 'see' followed by a quarter note 'saw', and finally a half note 'Boys and girls come out and play'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment.

See - saw, see - saw, On this our hol - i - day. Fine

The fourth system begins at measure 25 and concludes the piece. The vocal line has a half note 'See' followed by a quarter note 'saw', then a half note 'see' followed by a quarter note 'saw', and finally a half note 'On this our hol - i - day'. The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord. The word 'Fine' is written at the end of the system.
