

Though my carriage be but careless

Thomas Weelkes (1576 - 1623)

1. Though my car-riage be but care-less, though my looks be of the stern-est, yet my
2. No my wits are not so wild, but a gen-tle soul may yoke me, nor my

1. Though my car-riage be but care-less, though my looks be of the stern-est, yet my
2. No my wits are not so wild, but a gen-tle soul may yoke me, nor my

1. Though my car-riage be but care-less, though my looks be of the stern-est, yet my
2. No my wits are not so wild, but a gen-tle soul may yoke me, nor my pas-sions are com - pare - less, when I love, when I love, when I heart so hard com - piled, but it melts, but it melts, but it pas-sions are com - pare - less, when I love, when I love, when I love, when I heart so hard com - piled, but it melts, but it melts, but it melts, but it pas - sions are com - pare - less, when but I love, melts, heart so hard com - piled, but it

love, I love in ear - nest. 1. -nest.
melts, if love pro-voke me. me.

love, when I love, I love, I love, I love, I love, I love, I love in ear - nest. When I -nest.
melts, but it melts, if love, if love, if love, if love, if love, if love pro - voke me. But it me.

when I love, I love, I love, I love, I love, I love in ear - nest. -nest.
but it melts, if love, if love, if love, if love, if love pro - voke me. me.