Henry T. Tiltman

1. Hark! what heaven - ly sounds are float - ing Through the mid - night air;

5
An - gel voi - ces sweet - ly sing - ing Songs so won - drous fair.

2. "Come and worship" seems the burthen
Of their festal lay,
"In the little city yonder,
Christ is born to-day."
3. See around the lowly cradle
Wise men from afar
Bow in deepest adoration
To the Holy Star.
4. Shouts of praise and songs celestial
Mount up to the skies,
Shadows of terrestrial darkness
From creation rise.
5. Lo! the long expected Jesus
Comes to set us free,
Lift your voices, swell the anthem
To the one in Three.
