hill; Where their vi - gil shep - herds kept While their flocks in safe - ty slept.

2. Bright arose night's loveliest gem
Over distant Bethlehem,
Hail'd by Magi from afar,
Judah's promised regal star.

3. But the glory of the Lord
Was around those shepherds pour'd,
First upon their startled ear
Thrill'd the angels' word of cheer

4. Ere the answering burst of song
Swell'd the azure sky along,
Teaching man with joy to hail
Christ the Lord in fleshy veil.
